

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 98th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-THIRD DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 2016

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Hoskins in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

O come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker. (Psalm 95:6)

O God, Our Maker, out of the confusion of this busy session we come with very humble hearts to worship You. From the things that we have done we come into Your presence to ponder what You have done for us. As we wait upon You, powerfully renew in us the spirit of wonder, joy, and love.

From our prayers send us out into this full day to be better and effective representatives of the people of our beloved State. Put depth, devotion, and dedication into our patriotism. Bless our military, active and retired, and their families who we honor today. May we not simply speak of doing our duty, but may we bear some burden of useful service for this State we love with all our hearts. Enlist each one of us in the ranks of those who serve their community and who lift the level of our public life to the highest and noblest goals. Therefore may we make our legislature a more positive place in which our young people's futures may live and grow by solid and wise legislation defended by the brave.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Mya Vega.

The Journal of the thirty-second day was approved as printed.

Representative Lynch assumed the Chair.

(1) A person who at the time of the commission of the offense was sixteen years of age or older shall be eligible for parole after he or she has served at least forty years of his or her prison sentence; and

(2) A person who at the time of the commission of the offense was under sixteen years of age shall be eligible for parole after he or she has served at least thirty years of his or her prison sentence."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 16, Section 565.040, Line 15, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"565.034. 1. In all cases of murder in the first degree in which the defendant is a person who has not reached his or her eighteenth birthday at the time of the commission of the crime, when life imprisonment without eligibility for probation, parole, or release except by act of the governor is authorized, the judge in a jury-waived trial shall consider, or he or she shall include in the instructions to the jury for the jury to consider:

(1) Whether a statutory aggravating circumstance or circumstances enumerated in subsection 2 of this section is established by the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt; and

(2) If a statutory aggravating circumstance or circumstances is proven beyond a reasonable doubt, whether the evidence as a whole justifies a sentence of life imprisonment without eligibility for probation, parole, or release except by act of the governor or a sentence of life with the eligibility for parole.

In determining the issues enumerated in subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection, the trier shall consider all evidence which it finds to be in aggravation or mitigation of punishment, including evidence received during the first stage of the trial and evidence supporting any of the statutory aggravating or mitigating circumstances set out in subsections 2 and 3 of this section. If the trier is a jury, it shall not be instructed upon any specific evidence which may be in aggravation or mitigation of punishment, but shall be instructed that each juror shall consider any evidence which he or she considers to be aggravating or mitigating.

2. Statutory aggravating circumstances for a murder in the first degree offense shall be limited to the following:

(1) The offense was committed by a person with a prior record of conviction for murder in the first degree, or the offense was committed by a person who has one or more serious assaultive criminal convictions;

(2) The murder in the first degree offense was committed while the offender was engaged in the commission or attempted commission of another unlawful homicide;

(3) The offender by his or her act of murder in the first degree knowingly created a great risk of death to more than one person by means of a weapon or device which would normally be hazardous to the lives of more than one person;

(4) The offender committed the offense of murder in the first degree for himself or herself or another, for the purpose of receiving money or any other thing of monetary value from the victim of the murder or another;

(5) The murder in the first degree was committed against a judicial officer, former judicial officer, prosecuting attorney or former prosecuting attorney, circuit attorney or former circuit attorney, assistant prosecuting attorney or former assistant prosecuting attorney, assistant circuit attorney or former assistant circuit attorney, peace officer or former peace officer, elected official or former elected official during or because of the exercise of his or her official duty;

(6) The offender caused or directed another to commit murder in the first degree or committed murder in the first degree as an agent or employee of another person;

(7) The murder in the first degree was outrageously or wantonly vile, horrible or inhuman in that it involved torture, or depravity of mind;

(8) The murder in the first degree was committed against any peace officer, or fireman while engaged in the performance of his or her official duty;

(9) The murder in the first degree was committed by a person in, or who has escaped from, the lawful custody of a peace officer or place of lawful confinement;

(10) The murder in the first degree was committed for the purpose of avoiding, interfering with, or preventing a lawful arrest or custody in a place of lawful confinement, of himself or herself or another;

(11) The murder in the first degree was committed while the defendant was engaged in the perpetration or was aiding or encouraging another person to perpetrate or attempt to perpetrate a felony of any degree of rape, sodomy, burglary, robbery, kidnapping, or any felony offense in chapter 195 or chapter 579;

(12) The murdered individual was a witness or potential witness in any past or pending investigation or past or pending prosecution, and was killed as a result of his or her status as a witness or potential witness;

(13) The murdered individual was an employee of an institution or facility of the department of corrections of this state or local correction agency and was killed in the course of performing his or her official duties, or the murdered individual was an inmate of such institution or facility;

(14) The murdered individual was killed as a result of the hijacking of an airplane, train, ship, bus or other public conveyance;

(15) The murder was committed for the purpose of concealing or attempting to conceal any felony offense defined in chapter 195 or chapter 579;

(16) The murder was committed for the purpose of causing or attempting to cause a person to refrain from initiating or aiding in the prosecution of a felony offense defined in chapter 195 or chapter 579;

(17) The murder was committed during the commission of a crime which is part of a pattern of criminal street gang activity as defined in section 578.421.

3. Statutory mitigating circumstances shall include the following:

(1) The defendant has no significant history of prior criminal activity;

(2) The murder in the first degree was committed while the defendant was under the influence of extreme mental or emotional disturbance;

(3) The victim was a participant in the defendant's conduct or consented to the act;

(4) The defendant was an accomplice in the murder in the first degree committed by another person and his or her participation was relatively minor;

(5) The defendant acted under extreme duress or under the substantial domination of another person;

(6) The capacity of the defendant to appreciate the criminality of his or her conduct or to conform his or her conduct to the requirements of law was substantially impaired;

(7) The age of the defendant at the time of the crime."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.
